INTRODUCTION

The National Service Scheme is a Flagship programme of Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India that was launched in Mahatma Gandhi's birth centenary year 1969 as a Student Youth Service Programme. It is the largest student youth movement in the world to establish linkage between campus and community. The motto of NSS “Not me, But you” reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for selfless service.

Thrust Areas

- Social Harmony and National Integration
- Functional Literacy
- Environment Enrichment
- Life Skills Education
- Women Development and Gender Justice
- Disaster Management
- Adolescent Health and Management
- Cleanliness Drive

The already existing National Service Scheme (NSS) units- I & II of the Waikhom Mani Girls' College had a memorable glorious years of service to humanity, social cause, nation building and grooming the girl students of Manipur in general and Thoubal district in particular to become responsible citizens and develop the leadership qualities.
