

WAIKHOM MANI GIRLS' COLLEGE, THOUBAL

DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY

PROGRAMME: SPECIFIC OUTCOME

- PSO 1: Understand the definition and scope of Anthropology, man as a Biological and social being, the concept of Homo-Sapiens.
- PSO 2: Understand the definition of Physical Anthropology, Human skeleton and the different theories of evolution.
- PSO 3: Definition of Social Anthropology, Its different social organisations,
- PSO 4: Definition of Prehistoric Archaeology, appearance of man on the earth, tool making techniques.
- PSO 5: Human genetics, Cell division, Growth, Development, major Races of the world.
- PSO 6: Different cultural phases of Europe and India in Prehistoric Archaeology.
- PSO 6: Social change, theories of Social and Cultural Anthropology, Ethnographic account of the Nuer, Purum, Onge, Chin and Khasi tribes, some concept of Indian Anthropology.

COURSE OUTCOME

SEMESTER -I

AN- E- 101: FOUNDATION OF ANTHROPOLOGY

After completion of the course, a student will be able to understand all the concepts Anthropology as below;

- CO 1: Definition of Anthropology, Historical Development, scope and its branches.
- CO 2: Relationship of Anthropology with other disciplines- Biology, Palaeontology, Geology, Archaeology, Linguistics, sociology History, Economics, importance of studying preliterate societies in Anthropology.
- CO 3: Man as a biological and social animal, Man's place in Animal Kingdom, Human Society versus Animal Society, Tangible and Intangible Culture, Cultural Relativism.
- CO 4: Concept of Homo Sapiens, understanding biological and cultural variations, culture as a means of adaptation to different eco-riches.

SEMESTER- II

AN- E 202: PHYSICAL ANTHROPOLOGY

- CO 1: A. Definition and scope of Physical Anthropology: its relationship with the Biology, Demography, Ecology and Forensic Science.
- B. Man as a primate and a knowledge of the Anthropoid Apes regarding character and Distribution.

- CO 2: Human skeleton: classification changes that taken place due to assumption of erect posture.
- CO 3: Theories of Evolution: Theory of special creation, Catastrophism, Organic evolution: Lamarckism, Darwinism, Neo- Lamarckism and Neo Darwinism.
- CO 4: Practical: Identification of different instruments, measurements of bones and skull.

SEMESTER III

AN-E 303: SOCIAL ANTHROPOLOGY

- CO 1: Concept and scope of Social and Cultural Anthropology and its relationship with History, Economics, Psychology, Political sc, Linguistics and Sociology.
- CO 2: Concept of society, community, society and culture.
- CO 3: Kinship: Family and marriage system.
- CO 4: Political and economic organisation, Religion, Magic and Science.

SEMESTER IV

AN-E 404: PREHISTORIC ARCHAEOLOGY

- CO 1: Nature and scope of Prehistoric Archaeology. Its relationship with other branches of anthropology and allied sciences, basic concepts.
- CO 2: Geological time scale and appearance of man, Pleistocene epoch in prehistory significance, causes of different climatic conditions, evidences. Relative and absolute methods of dating.
- CO 3: Tool typology and technology.
- CO 4: Practical (based on the above theory papers-303).

SEMESTER V (Honourse)

AN – H 505: PHYSICAL ANTHROPOLOGY

- CO 1: Human Genetics: Definition, History and development, Laws of Heredity.
- CO 2: Homan Chromosome complement, Cell division, Simple single factor inheritance in man, Multiple allelism polygenic inheritance.
- CO 3: Different stages of life, Growth and development, Methods of studying growth, factor affecting growth.
- CO 4: Concept of race, racial criteria, Dermatoglyphics, Major racial groups of the world, UNESCO statement on race.

AN-H 506 PREHISTORIC ARCHAEOLOGY

CO 1: Palaeolithic cultures of Europe and India.

CO 2: Mesolithic cultures of Europe and India.

CO 3: Neolithic cultures of Europe and India.

CO 4: Metal age culture of India: Indus Valley Civilisation, Indian Megalithic Culture, Iron age culture of India.

AN – H 507 PRACTICAL

GROUP A: PHYSICAL ANTHROPOLOGY based on CO 4 of AN- H 505.

GROUP B: PREHISTORY based on CO 1, CO 2, CO 3 of AN- H 506.

SEMESTER VI (HONOURSE)

AN- H 608 : ADVANCED SOCIAL AND CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY.

CO 1; Meaning, factors and theories of social change.

CO 2: Theories of social and cultural Anthropology.

CO 3: Ethnographic accounts of some tribes.

CO 4: Profile of Indian Tribes, Civilization studies.

AN – H 609: RESEARCH METHODOLOGY AND APPLIED ANTHROPOLOGY

CO 1: Research Methodology applied in Anthropology Field work.

CO 2: Statistics involved in analysing the data.

CO 3: Steps involved in report writing.

CO 4: Applied, Action and development Anthropology, concept and scope.

AN – H 610: PRACTICAL

Group A: Museology.

Group B: Field Report.

